 Butterworth Fringe Festival

ABOUT

After its overwhelming success last year, the Butterworth Fringe Festival (BFF) returns with its second edition this year, promising to bring one-of-a-kind performances including street acts, exhibitions, food and games for two exciting days - August 13 and 14. The festival is a satellite event of the George Town Festival.

"The Butterworth Fringe Festival is an annual public and free-to-attend street event which brings art, heritage and culture celebrations to Butterworth. At the BFF, our focus is on community and spaces, and to promote the development of local and international art and culture. In time to come, we hope to make BFF a formidable fringe of the George Town Festival, comparable to many of the world's greatest fringe events like Edinburgh Festival Fringe and the Adelaide Fringe Festival. BFF began last year, but with every iteration, the festival will host more and more Malaysian acts and shows, showing the world our unique talent," says GTF director Joe Sidek.
