ST ANNE'S CHURCH

St. Anne's Church Bukit Mertajam has existed since 1833, when Chinese and Indian Catholics from Batu Kawan settled in the foothills of Bukit Mertajam. These people were farmers who had come to clear the land for cultivation. The very first Catholic church in Bukit Mertajam, a small chapel, was built on top of the hill between 1840 and 1860. Today, the site of that small chapel is the 15th and final station of the Cross which devotees make in their pilgrimage.
